

Screening Boo'in"

By KEVIN THOMAS

TI~ ST~P _~ITEI,{-

"Paris Is a Woman's" Greta Schiller and writer Mark Gevisser teamed for the memorable documentary "The Man Who Drove With Mandela," which launches Please see Screening, Page 20

-S,creening

Continued from Page 19
the Laemmle Theaters' "Documentary Days" series at the Sunset 5; Saturdays and Sundays at 10 a.m. The series repeats at the Monica 4-Plex, Saturdays and Sundays at 11 a.m., starting March 4, and 5;

Cecil Williams was a dashing, esteemed Johannesburg theater director and anti-apartheid activist who helped smuggle an exiled Nelson Mandela back into Africa to continue organizing for the African National Congress. Nelson would pose as Williams' chauffeur.

When they were arrested in August 1962, Williams, then, 55, was released the next day; Mandela faced life imprisonment.

Carin Redgrave plays Williams in scenes of self-reflection drawn from this uncommonly courageous man's writings.

Information: (323) 848-3500; (310) 394-9741.